Close Encounter

The students will preview today's lesson as they see the crucifixion through the eyes of the women who were there.

Materials

For each student:

- pencil
- Reproducible Pages:
- Page A, 1 copy for each student

Preparation

Complete the activity on your copy of Reproducible Page A.

Instructions

1. Greet the students as they arrive. Explain that today's lesson is about some women who followed Jesus to the end of his life on earth. Some of these women were there when Jesus was nailed to the cross.
2. Distribute the copies of Reproducible Page A and pencils. Explain to the students that they will select words from the box on their pages and write them in the appropriate category on the page. These words describe what the women saw, heard and felt when Jesus was being crucified.
3. Have the students work with partners or small groups. Check their answers with your Answer Key.
4. Circulate among the students to offer assistance and encouragement.

Teacher Tips

- Bring in books with pictures on the crucifixion.

Women Around the Cross

Women in the News

The students will hear the story of the women who followed Jesus to the cross in the final issue of this unit's special newspaper.

Materials

For each student:

- pencil

Reproducible Pages:

- Page B, 1 copy for each student

Preparation

1. Practice leading this activity.
2. Complete the activity on your copy of Reproducible Page B.

Introducing the Bible Story

Explain that in today's lesson, the students will learn about the women who followed Jesus and those who were with him when he died. Explain to the students that the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell about these women who were faithful followers of Jesus. Distribute the copies of Reproducible Page B and pencils. Tell the students to fill in the missing words as they read.

Presenting the Bible Story

Tell some students to open their Bibles to Luke 8:1-3, and direct others to open to Matthew 27:55-56. Explain that today's Bible Story comes from these passages. Read "Women Follow Jesus" from your copy of Reproducible Page B while the students follow. Tell the students to use their Bibles to help fill in the missing words. After reading this section, ask the students the following questions:

- Name some of the women who followed Jesus? (Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Susanna)
- Name some of the women who were at the cross? (Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons)
- Do you think it was dangerous for these women to be at the crucifixion? Why? (Answers will vary.)
- What did these women do to stay close to Jesus and show their faithfulness? (Answers will vary: they listened to his teaching; they cared for him and supported him financially; they talked with him; they went where he was; they were there when he died, etc.)

Women in the Life of Jesus Lesson 4

Tell the students to open their Bibles to John 19:25-27. Read "Disciple Adopts Mother" Ask the following questions:

- Who were the women at the cross? (Mary, the mother of Jesus; Mary, the wife of Clopas; and Mary Magdalene)
- What did Jesus say to his mother at the cross? (Dear woman, here is your son.)
- What did Jesus say to the disciple? (Here is your mother.)
- What did the disciple do after that day? (He took Mary into his home.)

Sharing with Others

These women were grateful to Jesus for teaching them about God and helping them to change. They stayed in a close relationship with Jesus. They cared about following him and decided to be with him even when he died. After Jesus' death and resurrection, the women showed their love for Jesus by telling many other people about him. Today, we can show our love for Jesus by telling others about him, too. Encourage the students to think of someone they can talk to this week about Jesus. Close with a prayer for the students to be close to Jesus.

Teacher Tips

- If you choose to have students read the news story, choose fluent, confident readers.
- Have extra NIV Bibles for students who have a different translation.

Women Around the Cross

Women in the Life of Jesus
Lesson 4

New Testament Women in the News

Volume 4

Answer Key

Women Follow Jesus to the End

Many people followed Jesus. Among these followers were many women.

After this, Jesus traveled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, and also some w o m e n who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: M a r y (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out; J o a n n a, the wife of Cuza, the manager of Herod's household; S a s a n n a and many others. These w o m e n were helping to support them out of their own means (Lk.8:1-3).

The women that followed Jesus listened to his lessons and saw his miracles. He had helped each one of them and they were very grateful. He taught them things they needed to know to live lives for God. They were faithful and followed him all the way to the cross. When other disciples deserted him during the crucifixion, these women were there for him.

Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs. Among them were M a r y M a g d a l e n e, M a r y the mother of James and Joses and the mother of Zebedee's sons (Mt.27:55-56).

Disciple Adopts Mother

Jesus was dying as he hung on the cross.

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on that disciple took her into his home (John 19:25-27).

For the teacher:

- scissors

Reproducible Pages:

- Page C, 1 copy for each student

Preparation

1. Cut out the picture squares from the copies of Reproducible Page C.
2. Make a sample of the finished craft to show the students.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In this week's lesson, you are learning about women who followed Jesus closely throughout his life. Show the students the craft you prepared. Read the memory verse to the students. Tell them that this picture will remind them of the women who stayed with Jesus at the cross.
2. Distribute the picture squares you prepared and the crayons. Have the students color their pictures.
3. Have the students fold their squares diagonally, along the dashed line, as shown in Figure A.
4. Distribute scissors to the students. Have the students open their squares, and then cut a slit along the solid line, as shown in Figure B.
5. Have the students glue the side with the scripture on it on top of the blank side. See Figure C.
6. Make sure the students write their names on their crafts.

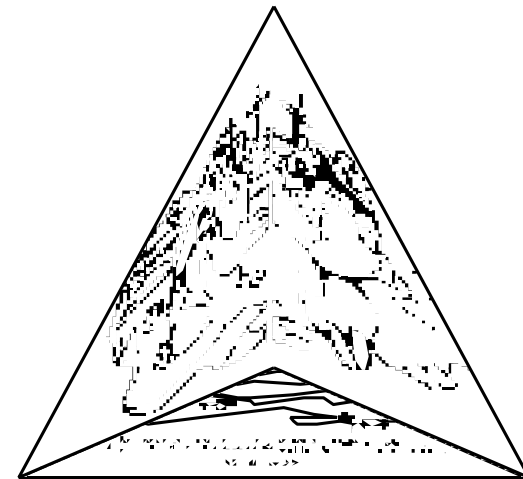

Women in the Life of Jesus Lesson 4

Conclusion

Encourage the students to show their crafts to their parents so that their parents can help them remember their memory verse. Close with a prayer thanking Jesus for inspiring us to meet each others' needs.

Teacher Tips

- If possible, point out to the parents that the memory verse is on the craft so they can encourage their child to remember it.

Catch Words

The students will learn and memorize today's Scripture Memory Verse as they participate in this game.

Scripture Memory Verse

They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.
Acts 1:14

Materials

For the teacher:

- 1 large ball
- 6 pieces of paper, 8½" x 11"
- marker
- masking tape

Preparation

1. In large print, write each of the following scripture phrases on each of the pieces of paper:
They all joined together
constantly in prayer,
along with the women
and Mary the mother of Jesus,
and with his brothers.
Acts 1:14
2. Practice leading this activity.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: This week in your lesson you are learning about some women who followed Jesus closely throughout his life. Jesus had helped each of these women. Some of these women helped support Jesus in his work. In today's Scripture Memory Verse you will learn that these women remained faithful and close to Jesus even after his death.
2. Show the students the Scripture Memory Verse on the back of this Lesson card. Say it to them three times as they follow silently. Ask the students to read the verse together with you three more times.
3. Ask two students to stand and say the verse with you. Repeat this until all the students have said the verse.

4. Tape the papers onto the front of six students. Tell them to put themselves in the correct order and then have everyone read the verse aloud to check it. Tell the students to form a large circle and then mix them up, so the verse is not in order.
5. Give the ball to the student who has the scripture reference. This student must throw the ball to the student with the first phrase and say it. Then this student throws the ball to the student with the second phrase and says it. Then this student throws the ball to the student with the third phrase and so on until the entire verse has been said.
6. Have the students exchange scripture phrases with the person next to them and repeat Step 5 as often as time allows.

Conclusion

Jesus made an impact on the hearts and lives of many people—especially these women. They followed him to learn from him. One of the ways they were able to stay close to Jesus and remain faithful was through prayer. Close with a prayer for the students to be close to Jesus.

Teacher Tips

- Adjust the number of scripture phrases to the size of your group.

Preparation

Complete the activity on your copy of Reproducible Page D.

Instructions

1. Greet the students as they arrive.
Remind the students that this week they learned about the women who followed Jesus to the cross. Explain that they will be decoding a list of these women who followed Jesus closely.
2. Distribute the copies of Reproducible Page D and pencils. Have the students work with a partner. Make sure that students who did not hear this week's Bible Story work with those who did. Show the students the first example that has been completed for them. Explain that each number refers to a letter of the alphabet as shown in the code at the bottom of the page.

Preparation

1. Read through the Gospel accounts of the women near the cross.
2. Write on the large writing surface the names of the women at the cross and the supporting scripture references, as shown on this page.
3. Complete your copy of Reproducible Page E.

Reviewing the Bible Story

Open your Bible to Matthew 27:55-56 and John 19:25-27. This week you have been learning about the women who followed Jesus closely. Jesus had helped and taught each of these women and they were thankful to Jesus for helping them. Some of these women were with Jesus to the end when he died. Some of them took care of his needs while he went from town to town teaching people about God and the kingdom. They heard Jesus teaching. They saw the miracles that he did. They talked with the other disciples. They prayed and they helped. Even after Jesus died, they stayed close to him through prayer, remembering and obeying his words.

Life Application

God wants us to be close to Jesus. He wants us to be like the women in this week's Bible Story. Name one way the women stayed close to Jesus. (Take a few responses.) Name a way you can be close to Jesus. Take a few responses and write them on the large writing surface. (Answers should include: pray every day; read my Bible; be thankful, etc.)

Distribute the copies of Reproducible Page E and pencils. Tell the students that they will think of one way they can be close to Jesus and write it in a letter to Jesus. Jesus has promised to stay close to his followers, so we can respond by thinking of ways to be close to him. Remind them that by signing their letters, they are showing that they want to do what they have said. Share what you wrote in your letter. Circulate among the students to assist and encourage them.

Conclusion

Have the students each share with each other what they want to do this week to stay close to Jesus. Close with a prayer for the students to be close to Jesus this week.

Teacher Tips

- Ask one half of the group to open the Bible to Matthew and the other half to John.

Will You Be Close?

The students will review ways to be close to Jesus as they play this card game.

Materials

For each student:

- 1 deck of regular playing cards
- score pad and pen

Preparation

Practice playing this game at home.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: This week you learned about some women who followed Jesus closely. God wants you to be close to Jesus, too. Some ways you can be close to Jesus are: praying, studying your Bible, going to church, talking with disciples, being open about your life and obeying the word of God. Can you think of any other ways? (Take a few responses.) In your game today you are going to review ways that you can be close to God.
2. Explain how the game is played: Each of you will get five cards. I will ask one of you if you have a person to stay close to Jesus. If you have a face card—meaning a queen, king or jack—you must place it down for all to see. If you have more than one face card, save them and only put down one. Then say one way you can be close to Jesus. When you give your answer, I will check my list of "Ways to Be Close to Jesus." (on the back of this Lesson Card) If your answers are on my list you will earn 10 points. If it is not, but is an appropriate answer, you will earn 15 points. The only way to win the game is if everyone gets to play a face card and say a way to be close to Jesus. So if one of you has an extra face card, you may give it to a student who has none. The winner can only be chosen if everyone has a face card to play.

3. Have the students sit in a circle. Deal five cards to every student. Place the remaining cards in a pile face down in the center.
4. Begin by asking the student to your right: Do you have a person to be close to God? If the student has a queen, king or jack he should say, "Yes, I have a person to be close to Jesus." Once he plays his face card he must state a way to be close to Jesus. If the student's answer is on your list give him 10 points. If the answer is not on your list but is appropriate give him 15 points. If the answer is inappropriate then no points are given.
5. If the student does not have a face card, he must say, "No, I don't have a person to be close to Jesus." That student may then pick a card from the pile, or he may receive a card from another player. If he picks a face card from the pile, he may place it down right away and tell one way to be close to God. If the card he picks up is not a face card, he places the card in the discard pile.
6. Play moves to the next student and continues until each student has played all their face cards, and/or all the cards from the pile have been played.
7. Total each of the students' points. Make sure that each student had played at least one face card. If any student did not play one of these cards, then there is no winner. Tell the students that the true winner is the person who is close to God.

Conclusion

Help the students to see that God wants us to have a close friendship with Jesus. Review some of the "Ways to Be Close to Jesus" and close with a prayer asking God to help the students be close to Jesus.

Teacher Tips

- Use the "Ways to Be Close to Jesus" list as a guide. The concept is what is most important. The wording does not have to match exactly.

Map of Women

The students will develop Bible skills and map skills by locating towns from the New Testament.

Materials

For each student:

- pencil
- Reproducible Pages:
- Page F, 1 copy for each student

Preparation

Complete the activity on your copy of Reproducible Page F.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In this unit you have learned of women whom Jesus taught and helped. In this activity you are going to look up scripture references, find the name of the town where the women were from, and find them on the map.
2. Tell the students to find a partner. Distribute the copies of Reproducible Page F and pencils to the students.
3. Tell the students to look up the scriptures and write the town mentioned on the lines provided. Then have them write the number of that town on the map next to its location. Do the first one with the students. Refer to the Answer Key on the back of this Lesson Card.

Conclusion

Remind the students of how some of these women traveled from place to place with Jesus and took care of his needs. Ask the students how far they have to travel to come to church. Help them to see that these women traveled long distances without a car, train or bus. Close with a prayer asking God to help us to be willing to do what Jesus asks of us.
