

Unit 10 at a Glance

Old Testament Review

Unit Overview

The students conclude their year-long, Old Testament survey with two review lessons that focus on God's family and the purpose of the Law and Prophets. As they review and summarize key concepts, they will consider how it all really adds up to loving God. Using games, the students will have fun opportunities to take a look again at the many people, places and things they have studied throughout the year. This unit will also prepare the students for their next great adventure—a journey through the New Testament!

Unit Goals

- The students will understand that God has a deep love for his family.
- The students will see that God is always working to help people live by the truth.
- The students will learn that the Law and Prophets were given to teach them how to love God.

Unit Contents

Lesson 1 God's Family Reunion

Scripture Memory Verse

Year One Review

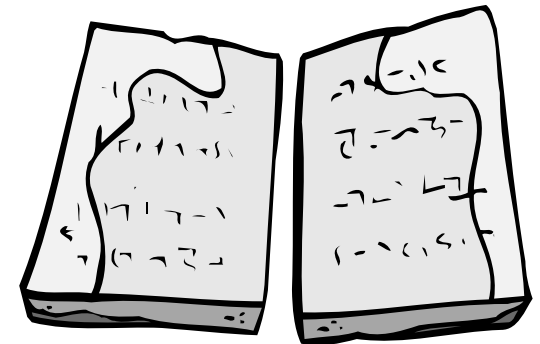

In this lesson, the students will do a general review of the main Old Testament characters from the books of Genesis through Joshua. Presented with each character is a powerful reminder of God's love, faithfulness, power and perfect planning. The students will be encouraged to consider how special it is to be a part of God's special family.

Lesson 2 The Law and the Prophets

Scripture Memory Verse

Year One Review

The year winds to an end as the students complete their survey and review. Not only will they review the Ten Commandments and key messages from the prophets, but the students will also consider Jesus' teaching about the greatest commandment of all—loving God. The students will see that the ultimate purpose behind the Law and Prophets is to teach them how to love God.

3rd and 4th Grades

Dear Parent,

The students conclude their year-long, Old Testament survey with two review lessons that focus on God's family and the purpose of the Law and Prophets. As they review and summarize key concepts, they will consider how it all really adds up to them loving God. Using games, the students will have fun opportunities to take a look again at the many people, places and things they have studied throughout the year. This unit will also prepare the students for their next great adventure—a journey through the New Testament!

On the reverse side of this page, you will find an outline and a description of the lessons that comprise this unit. Included with each lesson is a Scripture Memory Verse for you to review with your child at home.

Your active involvement outside the classroom is essential and will truly make the Kingdom Kids Curriculum a great success for your child. Here are some suggested ways you can reinforce these lessons at home:

- Take some time to give specific encouragement to your child for completing this year's Old Testament survey. Let them know how proud of them you are, and that this is a great accomplishment. (Your child has learned more about the Old Testament in one year than the average person learns in a lifetime.) Encourage them as much as you would a sport or hobby achievement.
- If your child is going on to the preteens, help them get prepared by meeting their new teachers and other preteens. Plan to have quiet times together in the preteen quiet time book, Extreme Life. (Woburn, Mass.: Kingdom Kids Curriculum and Discipleship Publications International, 1998)
- Celebrate your child's participation in Bible Class and Bible study as a family. Have a "graduation" party or go out for a special meal or outing to mark this important time in your family's life. Help younger siblings to appreciate what their older brother or sister has done.
- Offer to host or plan a class party to mark the year's end and help solidify new friendships that your child is developing.

We look forward to being partners with you to help your child grow to know and love God more.

Thank you,

Your child's teachers
